Does anyone have any old mobile phones that they no longer use, but that still work?

A charity organisation in Uganda is asking for donations of old, working mobile phones, to be sent to a Medical Centre, so doctors can contact their patients more easily.

If you have any old phones you no longer need, please drop them off to Mr. Koff in the English Staff Room!

Thanks.

LIBRARY CLOSED 10 AND 12 FEBRUARY All Years

Daily Notice by Georgia Anton on Tuesday, 9 February 2016 at 1:47pm

NSW Conference Open for Student Registrations Now

The United Nations Youth's NSW Conference invites all Years 9-12 students to spend a weekend from 11 March to 13 March exploring gender perspectives in peace and conflict.

Students will take part in interactive workshops to learn about issues in international relations through the lens of gender. The conference seeks to take a holistic view of gender groups.

The event is a chance for students to learn about International Relations, improve their speaking and diplomacy skills and make friends.

When: Friday 11 March to Sunday 13 March

Where: The Collaroy Centre

Cost: $240 per student

Registration and more information can be found here. It will be a fun-filled and inspiring weekend - we hope to see you're there!

If you are interested please see Mrs Anton.
