UN Youth Conference in NSW

The United Nations Youth’s NSW Conference invites all Years 9-12 students to spend a weekend from 11 March to 13 March exploring gender perspectives in peace and conflict.

Students will take part in interactive workshops to learn about issues in international relations through the lens of gender. The conference seeks to take a holistic view of gender groups.

The event is a chance for students to learn about International Relations, improve their speaking and diplomacy skills and make friends.

When: Friday 11 March to Sunday 13 March

Where: The Collaroy Centre

Cost: $240 per student

Registration and more information can be found here. It will be a fun-filled and inspiring weekend - we hope to see you’re there!

If you are interested please see Mrs Anton.
Motivational Speaker - John Coutis

Yr 11 & 12 Students,

John Coutis will be speaking to you today. He is a motivational speaker. His life story is inspirational and hopefully will inspire you as well.

Could each year group line up in the northern quad to enter into the hall promptly. Their teachers are to help with the organisation and supervision of the students.

Yr 11 - P1 (move to nthn quad as soon as your name is marked off)

Yr 12 - P2

Thank you for your cooperation.
