Volunteering is such a rewarding experience. It gives you the opportunity to meet new people, create new experiences and develop leadership skills. If this sounds like something you want to do and you feel that you want to make a difference then come along to the Interact Meetings which take place on Mondays during lunch time in Room 25. You are all welcome!

Electrical Apprentice - Harbour City Ferries

An exciting opportunity to kick start your career as an Electrician through completing an electrical apprenticeship at Harbour City Ferries

The role

Whilst completing your electrical apprenticeship, the successful applicant will work alongside skilled Tradespersons and Engineers undertaking duties such as maintenance and repair of the vessel fleet. If you are successful, you will be working four days at Balmain Shipyard and attending TAFE one day a week. During the holiday period, you will work five days a week at the Balmain Shipyard.

What you bring

You will have completed year 10 and are willing to enrol into Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician course at TAFE.

To be successful in this role you must be able to:

- Be enthusiastic and an eagerness to learn on the job
- Work well within a team environment
- Good oral and written communication skills
- Willingness to work outside normal hours when directed in accordance with the needs of the business

The benefits for you

In addition to working in the iconic Harbour City Ferries business, you will also be part of the broader Transdev global public transport brand. Transdev is a rapidly growing business and offers great career development opportunities.

About Harbour City Ferries

HCF is the operator of the iconic Sydney Ferries on behalf of the NSW Government employing around 650 staff at any given time and operating over 170,000 services per year throughout Sydney Harbour and its related waterways.

HCF is a wholly owned subsidiary of Transdev, a world leader in the operation of passenger transport services. Transdev operates in 19 countries around the world, with over 83,000 employees.

Our values and beliefs

The work we carry out touches the lives of our families, friends and future generations alike. Contributing to our growing, local and global business means you can make your mark, push boundaries and reach your maximum potential.

As an equal opportunity employer, we are committed to reflecting the diversity of the communities we serve. We support applications from people representing all diversity groups such as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, LGBTI, people with disabilities, religious beliefs, and ethnicity and ages.

We are committed to creating a diverse, inclusive and flexible workforce which reflects the community and the customers we serve.

Our recruitment process

Consistent with our uncompromising attitude to the safety of our employees, client and customers, our recruitment process may include a medical assessment, drug & alcohol testing as well as police, licence and right to work in Australia checks. We also utilise psychometric testing.

By submitting your personal information to Transdev you consent to such information being collected, held, used and disclosed in accordance with our Privacy Policy.
