The Task

You will be required to answer BOTH parts of a question in relation to your chosen twentieth century personality, Albert Speer.

You will need to prepare for the task by thoroughly researching and making comprehensive notes on all syllabus points on Albert Speer. Thorough completion of all work set on Albert Speer, including completion of set past HSC questions, will assist you in this process.

Research and preparation is to be completed at home. There will be limited in class teaching of this topic. Your preparation must cover all sections of the syllabus thoroughly.

The task will be completed in class under exam conditions.

You must answer part (a) and part (b) separately. Do not combine your responses. Identify your personality at the start of your answer.

The questions will be in the style of HSC Personality Study questions.

Part (a) is worth 10 marks

Part (b) is worth 15 marks.
